

Saturday Special

Roses Usually $2 doz. $1 doz.

Just 100 dozen of these choice roses to go at Saturday's special price. To avoid disappointment place your order early.

Blackstone
14th and H

200 CANDIDATES
HAVE NO EXPENSES

Another 100 Aspirants to Congress Spent Only $1,000 in Campaign.

About 200 candidates for Congress spent nothing in their campaign and less than 100 spent $1,000 of the $5,000 allowed by law, according to supplemental returns filed yesterday with William Tyler Page, clerk of the House. Most of the candidates have shown nominal expenses. The total cost candidates, in the primaries and election will not be reported for thirty days after November 7. The republican national committee reported gifts of $19,725; the democratic national committee, $10,454. The prohibition national committee contribution figures were $3,717. Without Opposition. Preliminary reports by House candidates show that about 200 are without opposition in the general election fight. This list includes those without opposition last week, although most of them previously had reported more or less expense in the primary. House candidates have found that in some instances a man's principal expense is reported after the election. "He may still keep well within the law and not tip his hand prior to the voting," an official explained. "Moreover, the biggest cost is in the last few days of the campaign and on election day."

Miss Alice Spends $3,000. Representative Alice Robertson of Oklahoma, the only woman member of the House, was among the highest spenders, according to the preliminary reports, her total being $3,895. Among contributions Miss Robertson reported one of $200 by Secretary Weeks and $1,100 by the Women's National Republican Club, Inc. No statement had been received today from Mrs. Otero-Warren, republican nominee in New Mexico, but it was reported on the way that neither O'Keefe, democratic nominee in the thirteenth Indiana district, listed the expenditure of $500, while Mrs. Lucy Patterson, running as a republican in the fifth North Carolina, reported that she had spent $125.

Volstead Spends Nothing. In the seventh Minnesota Representative Volstead, author of the prohibition enforcement act, reported that he had spent nothing. O. J. Kvale, a minister opposing him, reported the expenditure of $274.

Among House members seeking reelection those reporting general election expenses of $1,000 or more include: Timberlake, Colorado, $1,357; Merritt, Connecticut, $1,440; Layton, Delaware, $1,000; Sprout, Illinois, $1,228; McKenzle, Illinois, $1,260; Williams, Illinois, $2,219; Bannan, Indiana, $1,758; Hickey, Indiana, $1,014; Bird, Kansas, $1,016; Blakeney, Maryland, $1,500; Hill, Maryland, $2,285; Wasson, New Hampshire, $1,000; Ackerman, New Jersey, $2,005; Kindred, New York, $2,000; Pershing, New York, $1,352; Cockran, New York, $2,000; Mills, New York, $1,400; Chandler, New York, $2,031; Anson, New York, $1,528; Fairchild, New York, $2,000; Snell, New York, $1,250; Snyder, New York, $1,165; Clarke, New York, $1,807; Sanders, New York, $1,006; Stedman, North Carolina, $1,300; Pou, North Carolina, $1,050; Fitzgerald, Ohio, $1,070; Morgan, Ohio, $1,880; Alice Robertson, Oklahoma, $3,895; Gerner, Pennsylvania, $1,470; Kline, Pennsylvania, $1,146; Kreider, Pennsylvania, $2,400; Bixler, Pennsylvania, $1,700; Shreve, Pennsylvania, $1,360; Kirkpatrick, Pennsylvania, $1,555; Wyant, Pennsylvania, $2,500; Clouse, Tennessee, $2,173; Leatherwood, Utah, $1,000; Wisconsin, $1,500; Beck, Wisconsin, $1,500; London, New York, $1,200; Fish, New York, $1,835; McArthur, Oregon, $1,258.

Other Expense Accounts. Candidates, not incumbents, reporting general election expenses of $1,000 or more include: Gartenstein, fifth Illinois, $1,093; Craig, fifth Illinois, $1,605; Hull, sixteenth Illinois, $1,100; Black, sixteenth Illinois, $1,255; Henry T. Rainey, twentieth Illinois, $1,020; Greenwood, second Indiana, $1,100; Branstrator, twelfth Indiana, $1,315; Cook, second Iowa, $1,357; Sipp, eleventh Kentucky, $4,748; Coan, fifth Minnesota, $1,007; Sears, sixth Nebraska, $2,150; Sayre, fifth New Jersey, $1,054; Cleary, eighth New York, $1,225; Celler, tenth New York, $2,011; Dickstein, twelfth New York, $2,433; Marks, nineteenth New York, $2,043; Frank, twentieth New York, $2,043; Wainwright, twenty-fifth New York, $2,300; Burns, twenty-seventh New York, $1,193; Tabor, sixteenth New York, $1,150; Stalker, thirty-seventh New York, $2,437; McDonald, sixth North Carolina, $2,173; Campbell, eighth North Carolina, $1,190; Gard, third Ohio, $1,200; Valentine, twelfth Ohio, $1,051; Ashbrook, seventeenth Ohio, $1,652; Stone, fifth Oklahoma, $1,410; Watres, eleventh Pennsylvania, $1,026; Croil, fourteenth Pennsylvania, $2,045; Werts, twentieth Pennsylvania, $1,500; Kurtz, twenty-first Pennsylvania, $1,912; Haines, twenty-second Pennsylvania, $4,094; Kane, twenty-third Pennsylvania, $1,492; Kent, thirtieth Pennsylvania, $1,575; Aldrich, second Rhode Island, $1,690; Burnett, third Tennessee, $1,693; Hertsberg, fourteenth Texas, $1,490; Simpson, sixteenth Texas, $2,473; Hassinger, ninth Virginia, $2,460; Berger, fifth Wisconsin, $1,422; Winters, Wyoming, $1,500; Cannon, ninth Missouri, $1,258; Garber, eighth Oklahoma, $1,075; Arnold, twenty-third Illinois, $1,491; Rathbone, Illinois at large, $1,760. John R. Hefner, socialist candidate in the nineteenth Illinois, holds the economy record. He reported the expenditure of 4 cents for postage.

RETURNS ARE SLOW. Only Half of Senate Candidates Have Reported.

Campaign expense statements have been filed so far with the secretary of the Senate by about half of the candidates for election as senator next Tuesday, and it may be that some of the candidates will accept the interpretation of the Supreme Court decision in the Newberry case by Attorney General Daugherty—that they are not required to file.

Attorney General's Decision. In a letter last year to Representative Luce, republican, Massachusetts, the Attorney General, answering a specific inquiry as to the effect of the Newberry decision, said:

"As United States senators are not now elected by legislatures of the states, as contemplated in the act, it is my opinion that this fact in connection with the holding in the Newberry decision makes it unnecessary for a candidate for United States senator to file any statement whatever in connection with his nomination or election."

Mr. Daugherty contended that the only provision of the election law now in force and effect is the one which requires such statements to be filed in connection with the election of candidates for the House.

Abundance of Caution. M. M. Neely, democratic nominee for senator in West Virginia, in sending his statement wrote that "despite the ruling of the attorney general that it was unnecessary for senatorial candidates to make reports to the secretary of the Senate, he was sending his along 'out of an abundance of caution.'" Mr. Neely said he received contributions of $1,517 and had spent $2,154. Senator Sutherland of that state, who is seeking to hold his seat, reported the expenditure of $2,200.

Among the other reports filed are those of Senator Lodge and his opponent, Senator Lodge spent $3,870, all of which went to republican clubs in his state, while William A. Gaston, his democratic opponent, spent $1,216 in the primary and $4,113 in the general election fight.

Read Contributions, $12,000. In Ohio Senator Pomeroy reported under date of October 27 contributions of $1,855 and expenditure of $3,104. Representative Fess, his republican opponent, reported primary expenses of $312.

On July 23 Senator Reed of Missouri reported that his primary contributions were $12,000. He spent $1,867, generally, and $3,775 for stationery, printing, mailing, etc. R. R. Brewster, republican candidate, reported expenditures of $500.

ORDERED TO CANAL ZONE. Capt. Charles R. Mueller, Medical Corps, in this city on leave of absence from his post, Fort Sheridan, Ill., has been ordered to Balboa Hotel, Panama Canal Zone, for duty.

D. C. RED CROSS MODEL.

Miss Boardman Lauds Chapter in Roll Call Planning.

Miss Mabel T. Boardman, secretary of the National Red Cross, speaking at a meeting of the women's committee yesterday, declared the District of Columbia Chapter is one of the model branches of the organization.

The meeting of the women's committee was called to make plans for the sixth annual Red Cross roll call, which begins Armistice day. It was decided to establish booths and stations in banks, stores, theaters and other public places. Uniformed Red Cross women will be present to accept enrollments in the national organization, which will benefit both the parent and the branches. Mrs. Theodore W. Richards, secretary of the District chapter, enrolled the workers for their various posts.

HONOR TWO U. S. NEGROES

President Borno of Haiti Seeks Aid in Island's Schools and Industry.

President Borno of Haiti, through the United States State Department, has invited W. T. Williams to come to that country to investigate the possibilities of establishing in Haiti vocational schools along the lines of the Tuskegee Institute. Dr. Moten, head of the institute, was originally invited, but was unable to accept and recommended Williams in his stead.

President Borno also has invited Robert Church of Memphis to make an investigation in Haiti of a similar nature with relation to business and industrial conditions. The two American negroes thus honored by the Haitian government are expected to leave for that country in the near future.

More Sales Capitol FUR Shop Smaller Profits

47 Natural Muskrat C-O-A-T-S

$99.50 ACTUAL WORTH $165.00 ea.

Saturday, Monday and Tuesday Only

THINK OF THIS SPECIAL! Coats that are 40 inches full long—full flare—5-stripe borders—bell and turn-up cuffs—large capes or shawl collars—lined with the finest of pussy-willow satins and brocades—AND THE NEWEST STYLES.

We were fortunate enough to purchase the entire stock of Muskrat skins from a fur dealer who had to have money in a hurry—and we actually purchased them for 33 1/3% on the dollar—you will appreciate these wonderful and even sensational bargains—if you will see them and compare them.

A Small Deposit Reserves Them Until Wanted

Our Only Store 1208 G St. N.W. Remember the Address

THE LOUVRE
1115 1117 F STREET
A Quality Offering in
Fine Coats
Handsomely Fur-trimmed Effects
$79.50

The unusualness is expressed in the character of the weaves; the distinctiveness of the modeling—and elegance of the embellishing Furs. We commend these to your consideration as materially better than the price.

All sizes, including Ladies' and Misses'.

Two Groups of
Effective Dresses
$39.50 and $69.50

Models for street, afternoon and evening functions—beautiful Silks, Velvets, Laces, Twill Cords, etc.—of original and charming designs—most artistically garnished.

All sizes, including Ladies' and Misses'.

Newly arriving
Millinery

Our problem has been to keep our assortments complete—so constant and pressing is the demand for the Louvre exclusive styles. Every day brings us new arrivals—and tomorrow's showing will be especially strong in variety and value.

The Favored
Sport Hose

—in the smart shades—and in the preferred combinations.

Silk and Lisle..... $1 and $1.50
Silk and Wool..... $2.25, $2.65, $3.25
(The $3.25 are Clocked Effects)

Camel's Hair..... $2.50

Unique Presentations in Our Specialty Department

On entry to the New Home of Erlebacher, Milady will be impressed with the Parisian atmosphere, presenting importations of Jewelry, Perfume and Underwear; Beautiful Blouses, hand-made and hand-embroidered in the latest styles—very suitable for wear with sweater and skirt, made along the Russian and Arabic lines, in a mixture of wool and silk.

Originations in Millinery

Our Millinery Salon presents to Milady uniqueness and individuality in its display and creations for winter and for evening wear from designers whose names bespeak the ultra-fashionable.

Buy for Xmas—Buy at Erlebacher's

Erlebacher

Twelve-Ten and Twelve-Twelve F St.

Phone
Main 8306

Phone
Main 8306

Specials for Saturday!!

New Silks for
New Frocks

No matter what quality of silk you have in mind for your new frock—you are sure to find it at this silk shop! There's a reason, undoubtedly! Nine mills supply our needs, selling direct to you from the looms! The saving of middleman's profits warrants inspection by you!

New Fashions Demand

$3.00 Satin Royal—Twenty exquisite shades of this yarn-dyed, guaranteed satin, possessing long-wearing qualities. At..... $2.19

Regular $7.59 Chiffon Velvets—Finest grade of street and evening shades; all silk; pure dyes. Special at..... $6.49

$12.00 Brocaded Chiffon Velvet—Attractive designs, large and small patterns; colors of popular demand; FASCINATING in the extreme when combined with plain color silk or velvet..... $10.48

From the Silk Looms to You!

Means a Saving of From 20 to 25% on Our Silks

You buy from the mills direct when you take advantage of our values! So confident are we that they cannot be equaled that we will cheerfully refund your money if you can find their equal anywhere! Service is our keynote.

Silk Looms of America, Inc.

From Loom to "David" Silk 1114 G, Bet. 11th and 12th Wearer

One Day Only Philipsborn Fourth Floor
608 to 614 ELEVENTH ST.

Just for Saturday---

But the biggest Event of the Season—
Offering You the choice of

Every Model Hat
from our French Salon

The high-priced Model Hats—are all included—for one day—at

$9

The styles include the most distinctive types presented this season—and of values that are two to three times this special price.

That Dress Hat you have been promising yourself for Thanksgiving Day is available now at this tremendous saving—if selected tomorrow.

Over 1,000 Hats in the collection
—including Hats of Gold and Silver Cloth

In the French Salon—Fourth Floor